

SPECIFICATION FOR SUPPLY OF FUEL BY WEIGHT.

1. Fuel will be brought by the contractor to the Government fuel yard in dried condition.
2. The contractor at his own cost shall weigh and deliver to the Superintendent daily the quantity indented for by him.
3. The contractor should load the trollies at his own expense and when he has done so should intimate the same to the Superintendent. The Superintendent will get his staff to push the trollies to the weigh bridge and have them weighed in the presence of the contractor or his authorized agent. He will then give a receipt for the quantity of fuel taken over on each occasion.
4. The fuel not weighed and delivered to the Superintendent will remain in the yard at the contractor's own risk.
5. The contractor will keep an agent at the pumping station to comply with the daily indents of the Superintendent without delay.
6. The weighment will be made only between 8 and 10 A.M. in the mornings and between 3 and 5 P.M. in the evenings.
7. The contractor should always maintain at the fuel yard a reserve stock of at least (360) three hundred and sixty tons.

OFFICE OF THE MILITARY-SECRETARY TO HIS HIGHNESS THE MAHARAJA OF MYSORE.

RULES FOR THE HIRE OF GOVERNMENT CARRIAGES.

1. Hire of all carriages is restricted to officers of the Mysore Government, and that of victorias; to officers drawing salaries of Rs. 1,000 or over.
  2. Applications on tickets, which can be obtained at the carriage office, new lines, will be dealt with in order of receipt and should therefore usually be a few hours in advance of requirements.
  3. The use of Government vehicles is a concession and cannot be claimed as a right.
  4. Government will not be responsible for any accident whatever arising from the use of these carriages.
  5. Daks outside a five-mile radius from the Residency in Bangalore or Palace in Mysore (which is the limit to which carriages may be taken) will not be furnished except under special permission obtained through the Military Secretary.
- Such applications should therefore reach that officer four days before the dak is required.
6. The following are the rates:—
